For anyone who may be interested the weekend doesn't finish Saturday night after the social. Our group has organised a mystery bus tour to places of interest within the area for the Sunday (the actual places being visited is also a mystery to us as we are leaving it up to the bus driver). There will be a lot more info and pamphlets available on the weekend. All of the tours mostly involve food, chocolate and alcohol and have been selflessly researched by members of the Bootscootin' Devils.

We will need to know numbers for the bus tour by lunch time on the Friday (27/04/12) as some of the venues we will be visiting need to prepare. Costs will be any entry fees to attractions and meals and drinks + bus fee (will depend on numbers). We will have firm prices closer to the date which will be posted on our website or emailed on request.

For those not wishing to do the bus tour there will be a "Request Only" social Sunday morning 10am-Noon followed by a sausage sizzle lunch!
